Dear Sir

Youre of 26th inst just received with inclosures of check, vouchers, and Blackman's letter. and herein I return Youre note of 16th inst and some matter of Mr. McClure's.

The enthusiam out here will not flag to the detriment of the work as we will still make and dispense medals as of good, but I think you understand me when I write about disappointment at matters having been placed in other hands. It is of course a relief to have the responsibility placed elsewhere and it certainly is a comfort not to have to run to bank up in Chicago every whipstitch.

We will relieve Mr. Grace on or about the 17th of July

I will meet Will when he arrives in Chicago and see him safely to his hotel.

Nothing new has transpired I believe since my letter of yesterday The sale of medals since you left has been as follows

June 16.	$149.00	June 24.	$131.00
17	163.00	26.	273.00
19.	205.00	27.	234.00
20.	213.00
21.	234.00
23.	276.00

Very Respectfully
H. S. Beckley.
